RACK UP THE REGIONS

The Erie Canal and Canalway Trail are divided into distinct regions, each roughly 90 miles. Rack up all four regions to become a 360 End-to-End!

- Buffalo to Rochester
Calm waters and flat, easy trail connect charming towns rich in canal history.
- Rochester to Syracuse
Varied terrain on water and land joins picturesque countryside with vibrant cities.
- Syracuse to Little Falls
Tasty craft brews and ice cream await along the historical canal of the 1800s and today's canal route.
- Little Falls to Albany
The Erie Canal merges with the mighty Mohawk River to reveal treasures accessible by water and trail.

CONNECTING CANALS

The Champlain, Oswego, and Cayuga-Seneca Canals offer more opportunities for adventure.

- Champlain Canal
Waterford to Whitehall (63 miles)
Paddle or cycle a region steeped in American history.
- Cayuga-Seneca Canal
Montezuma to Geneva, Cayuga and Seneca Lakes (92 miles)
Famed for its wineries, wildlife, and beautiful lakes.
- Oswego Canal
Three Rivers to Oswego (23 miles)
Short but sweet! Paddle the scenic Oswego to Lake Ontario.

You can count miles on any of these canals toward your Canalway Challenge total!
